

James G. Baxter, Pharm.D., Ph.D.
Vice-President, Pharmaceutical Sales
Pfizer

We were pleased to have Dan Heumann speak at Pfizer about disability awareness. Dan's messages were well received by the audience and spoke to the importance of creating an inclusive environment as well as accepting and appreciating differences.

We attracted the largest group ever, and you touched the hearts and minds of many. Thank you so much for making our March Leadership at All Levels a huge success!

William F. Canning
Department of Recreational Sports
University of Michigan

At times we all get so involved in the details that we miss the lives that we touch. Your manner, passion, and courage inspired my Recreational Sports staff to realize the difference that each of them make on a daily basis. You raised their spirits and touched their souls.

Rubloff Residential Properties*

We have received enormous positive feedback from our brokers regarding your presentation. It was both thoughtful and inspiring. I was impressed by your ability to translate your experiences and determination into practical applications that our brokers could draw upon.

Lisa Ruane

*Director, Component Services
American Physical Therapy Association (APTA)*

Danny was the keynote speaker for the American Physical Therapy Association's 2005 National Student Conclave. His session, "Go the Extra Mile!" reinforced that communication and work with a patient is a two-way street. It was inspirational to listen to a patient who is so motivated to succeed and so aware of and perceptive to his therapist's strengths and weaknesses. Danny delivered his message in a sincere way and motivated the healthcare audience to provide better care.

Ron Cohen, M.D.

*President and CEO
Acorda Therapeutics, Inc.*

Danny Heumann is one of those rare people who can inspire others to reach beyond themselves, to achieve things they barely thought themselves capable of. Danny does this both by his extraordinary speaking ability and by the compelling example of his own life story ... Listening to him has made us better people and more effective at what we do."

Rob Schuller
Director of Development
Hyde Schools

Thank you so much for your visit to our school last week. The students and faculty are still talking about it! The way you spoke with our community about your struggles, your successes, your dreams and aspirations; I can honestly say that every last person in our group of 250 that attended the school meeting was touched by your strength and your story. The honest approach you took, where no question was off limits, had hands raised high for over 40 minutes before we had to send them off to their next period. I was amazed at how incredibly insightful the students' questions and comments were.

Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago
LIFE Center

Kris Cichowski
Director, LIFE Center (Learning, Innovation, Family, Empowerment)
Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago

On behalf of the staff, patients, and visitors of the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago (RIC) LIFE Center, thank you so very much for your inspiring and thought-provoking presentation – Developing Positive Doctor & Patient Relationships / Overcoming Adversity and Living a Fulfilling Life.

As you know, the RIC has been recognized as America's Best Rehabilitation Hospital and prides itself in promoting only the finest quality of services and information for people with disabilities, families, and health professionals. Your presentation exemplified this. Your articulate and heart-felt reflections reminded us of how important it is for families, patients, and healthcare professionals to realize the impact of their communications and influence on the future. Receiving a consumer's perspective of healing and recovery provided invaluable learning.

*Director of Development
Detroit Country Day School*

On March 9, 2006, Detroit Country Day School had the good fortune to welcome Danny Heumann to our Seligman Performing Arts Center. His presentation to our entire Upper School student body and faculty, as well as members of our professional staff, left the entire audience thoroughly impressed ... Danny stood tall in the eyes of our students and left us all feeling challenged to live more passionately and make more of our lives than ever before. I would highly recommend his outstanding message to any high school or, indeed, any organization. His principles for developing leadership are valuable for any group, and his story is absolutely inspiring.
